Employees at St. Andrew's Health Center are pictured with food items they collected in donations for the food pantry this Christmas season. Each Wednesday in December, employees could wear jeans to work if they brought a donated food item or paid $1.00. In total, 290 pounds of food and $21.00 were collected by St. Andrew's Health Center employees for the local food pantry. This amount represents almost 70 more pounds of food donated by St. Andrew's employees, as compared to last Christmas.
